Continuation of 4(e) Other: Faxed copies of amended claims and remarks received by the office are not sufficiently legible to fully understand changes to original claims and applicant's remarks. Therefore a proper examination cannot be performed. These amendments and remarks were previously submitted in similarly illegible form. This is the second attempt to file the same amendments and remarks and the second notice of non-compliant amendment in response. Copies of amendments and remarks were previously enclosed to demonstrate the problem. Examiner requests that applicant please do his best to ensure that the submitted claims and remarks are legible. If applicant does not have access to an adequate fax machine please use another form of submission. Examiner notes that the original application was filed in perfectly clean, clear and legible form.
